All Saints' Day, November 1st - All Souls' Day, November 2nd

On All Saints' Day, the Church commemorates the communion of saints in a special way. The commemoration of All Saints' Day stems from a belief that there is a powerful spiritual bond between those in heaven, and the living. All Saints' Day celebrated the saints of the Church, both those that are well-known and those unknown.

All Souls' Day is observed on November 2nd, and is dedicated to those who have died and not yet reached heaven.
